Brothers Are Fighting in Mexican Army.

Miss Italia Garibaldi, daughter of Gen. Giuseppe Garibaldi, and granddaughter of the "Liberator of Italy," is paying Washington a visit. She is the guest of Mrs. Thomas H. Anderson, wife of Justice Anderson, 1531 New Hampshire avenue northwest.

The Garibaldi family is one of the most famous of Italy's great people. From her great-grandfather down to her brothers, the male members have distinguished themselves as heroes in wars. Two brothers, according to Miss Garibaldi, are today members of President Madero's Mexican regulars. One is a general-Gluseppe Garibaldi, dr .- and the other, Riciotti Garibaldi, who also is fighting to maintain peace

Miss Garibaldi is greatly impressed with the hustle and thrift of the American people, and of the great buildings. She says that it does her countrymen good to live in America while, because it imbues them with an enthusiasm which makes them helpful to the old country when they return.

This morning she spoke at the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, and this evening will talk at the Dumbarton Avenue Methodist Church.

Miss Garibaldi is an accomplished scholar, and speaks English just as fluently as she does her native tongue. She is greatly devoted to Red Cross work, and was preparing to go to Tripoli when she came to this country.

She will be in the city a few days, when she will leave for New York, and then sail for Rome.

AVIATION NOTES.

Lieut. Fred H. Poteed, Lieut. Isaac F. Dortch, and Lleut, Laurence N. Mc-Nair, of the United States Navy, will become aviators. They will be taught to fly the hydroaeroplanes of the navy aviation school at Annapolis.

Lieut. William Sherman, of Washington Barracks, is anxious to become an aviator. At every chance he gets he visits the aviation school at College Park, and makes short flights with the officers there. If it is possible to be detailed to aviation duty, he would like to learn to fly.

In a double control Curtiss hydro, Lieut. Theodore Ellyson and Lieut. J. H. Towers, of the navy aviation school at Annapolis, yesterday afternoon flew to Centerville, Md., and returned to Annapolis, covering a distance of fifty-five miles in fifty-six minutes.

Paul Peck leaves the city tonight for Charlestown, W. Va., where he gives a number of exhibition flights this week in his Columbia biplane. From Charlestown he goes to Boston, Mass., where he takes in a big aviation meet held there the last of this month and the first of July.

For the benefit of persons desiring to go to College Park, Md., to see the army aviators fly, electric cars leave Fifteenth and G streets northwest at a quarter of the hour and a quarter after the hour, marked either Berwyn or Laurel.

The Very Place.

"I think," said young Trotter, "I'll draw that money Uncle John left to me. I'm thinking of a trip abroad,"
"But," protested his mother, "you were to save that for a rainy day,"
"Well, I'm going to London. I'll be sure to find a rainy day there."—

COMPTROLLER QUICK TO INFORM WILSON

Miss Garibaldi Declares Two Secretary Wanted to Know Why Certain Clerks Are Favored.

> Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson has propounded to the Comptroller of the Treasury the interesting question as to why officials of the Department ## of Justice just returned from travel status ca neet their laundry done at Government expense, while, under similar conditions and circumstances of the Department of Agriculture cannot. For the Comptroller, the answer was easy. He replied that the regulations of the Department of Agriculture provide that no employe returned to headquar-ters from authorized travel shall put in an expense account for laundry done after he has reached his headquarters or natural destination. The Department of Justice has no such regulation. This, says the Comptroller, makes the difference.

The Secretary of Agriculture's inquiry was called forth by a decision of the Comptroller allowing in laundry item in the expense account of one of the investigators of the Department of Justice, though it was shown that the work was done in Washington after the man's return. The Comptroller allowed it because the linen was soiled in travel. No such allowance could be made for it because the linen was solled in travel.
No such allowance could be made for a Department of Agriculture man, because of the Secretary's rigid and unbending regulations that under no circulture of the Government be cumstances will the Government be liable for laundry done after reaching headquarters.

says the Comptroller, makes the differ

the aviation field at College Park, four acroplanes were seen in the air at one time yesterday afternoon. On other oc-ensions three machines have been circling about, but not four.

Three of the machines belonged to the army, and the other was the Columbia monoplane, flown by Paul Peck. A unique sight was shown, when three of the four machines in the air at the sums time were flying in the same direction, and lirectly over each other.

rection, and lirectly over each other.

Cant Charles DeForest Chandler was in the old Wright machine, Lieut. Thomas Dewitt Milling was in the Eurgeas-Wright, Lieut. Frank M. Kennedy in the old Curtiss, and Paul Peck in the Columbia monoplane.

Peck after making a number of short flights about the field announced that atmorpherical conditions were not good enough to insure a safe flight over the city, is he had planned, and as a result called his trip off.

Members of the Washington Aero Club visited the army aviation school and enjoyed the flights of the officers and Paul Peck.
